Principal's Report

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Twilight Markets

We had another fabulous Faulconbridge evening last Friday night for our annual Twilight Markets. The weather was kind to us and the school was 'buzzing' with activity. Thank you to all the volunteers who put in a huge effort to make the markets another successful event for our school community. Thank you to everyone who donated cakes to our school stall, and books to the book stall. These initiatives are a great way for everyone to contribute to the success of the event. A big thank you to our P&C Twilight markets team for their continued effort and enthusiasm in planning and implementing the event and fundraising for our school.

Award Ceremony

It was with pleasure, last week, that I was present when Mrs Jansons was awarded her Certificate of Validation for her completion of the Principal Leadership Program. The Certificate was awarded by Mr Phil Seymour, the president of the NSW Primary Principals Association, in the presence of the Secretary of the Department of Education, Mr Mark Scott. I am incredibly proud of Mrs Jansons and the work she has done to be awarded the certification. Congratulations Mrs Jansons.

The rules don't change

Lately it is evident that some students believe that they can ride their scooters around the school after the bell and after school hours. This was particularly obvious at the Twilight Markets. Our school grounds were extremely crowded, and it was quite dangerous for students to be on scooters in such a crowded space. The rules don't change just because it is after 3pm. As stated in previous newsletters, all bikes and scooters should be walked into the school grounds and walked to the gate when exiting school grounds.

Equally, all students, 12 years old and under, should be supervised by parents after 3pm. Our duty of care as teachers does not extend to after school events. Our office staff and Learning Support Officers have no legal duty of care to students. We do not provide supervision of students during events such as parent/teacher evenings and the Twilight Markets. Children remain under the responsibility of their parents. We would appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Neighbourhood Issues

From time to time there may be incidents which occur in the neighbourhood outside of the school that involve students from our school. It is important to make a report the police if there is incident that causes distress, injury or damage to your property. Children from the age of 10 fall under the Young Offenders Act. The police are your first option if incidents arise, that are not on the school grounds. Springwood Police can be contacted on 4751 0299.

Dogs on school grounds

It is timely to remind families that The Companion Animals Act provides that dogs are prohibited from school grounds whether they are leashed or unleashed. It is an offence which carries a penalty ranging from $1,100 to $11,000 depending on whether the dog is designated a dangerous breed or not. This does not apply to police, guide or assistance dogs.

Principal's Report cont'd

This is a health and safety issue for all members of the community. Dog's behaviour can be unpredictable in noisy, busy environments and our school cleaners should not be cleaning up from our four-legged friends. In an effort to comply with the Companion Animals Act of NSW we request that you leave your dogs at home. If your family enjoys walking to school with their dog, please stop and say goodbye at the school gate.

School Attendance

Congratulations to the families who have made a great effort to have their children at school every day.

There is an area that the school can do better and that is getting to school on time each morning. The first few minutes in each classroom is very important for setting up the plan for the day's learning activities. Children do not have a positive start to the day if they walk in late and they miss the instructions for the first activity. Students are marked as absent on the attendance register if they walk in to the classroom after the rest of the class has entered. Mornings are considered prime teaching and learning time for classrooms and you can help by aiming for "In line, on time" each morning. All children arriving late to school should report to the office to get a late note before going to their classroom.

Arriving at school

We have some students who are arriving at school before our 8:25am bell. This bell signals that there is a teacher on duty to supervise students before school. Students arriving earlier than this are asked to sit near the canteen. This is to ensure their safety until a teacher is on duty. When the bell goes at 8:25am the teacher/s on duty will supervise students on the quad area until the 8:55am bell. If you need to drop your child to school before 8:25am we have an Out of School Hours (OOSH) service – FunKids - on site, who may be able to assist you with care in the mornings. Please contact Funkids for information.

www.funkids.com.au

School Fees

Statements were issued this week for outstanding fees. We would appreciate your best efforts to have these paid before the end of the year. The school has had to pay invoices for events and equipment the students have used and your prompt payment helps us ensure ongoing experiences for the students. Please contact the school office if you have difficulties paying your account to arrange a payment plan.

Mrs Carol Frith - Principal

Dear Parents/Carers,

The ICAS certificates will be presented at the next 3-6 assembly on Friday, 22nd November at 2pm. Year 2 students who sat the ICAS assessments will be invited to attend this assembly. Parents of participating students are invited to attend.

Regards,
Mrs K. Jansons

Recently our communities team have been working on the sourcing and installation of a Welcome to Country Sign for Faulconbridge Public School. As a school we recognise the place of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as the first custodians of this land. This increased awareness will help us create a more united Australia, that celebrates and embraces our First Australians. Consultation for the sign was discussed with our Local Dharug and Gundungurra Elder, Uncle Graeme Cooper and the Local Aboriginal Educational Consultative Group.

We thank Signpac who created and installed the sign and incorporated our design ideas. We look forward to officially celebrating our Welcome and Acknowledgement to Country in the coming future.

Mrs. Carter

NAIDOC ARTWORK

This year's NAIDOC Theme Voice, Treaty, Youth, were three key elements to the reforms set out in the Uluru Statement from the Heart. These reforms represent the unified position of First Nations Australians. The reforms outline the desire for a First Nations Voice to Parliament enshrined in the Constitution and second, a Makarrata Commission to supervise treaty processes and truth-telling. (Makarrata is a word from the language of the Yolngu people in Arnhem Land. The Yolngu concept of Makarrata captures the idea of two parties coming together after a struggle, healing the divisions of the past. It is about acknowledging that something has been done wrong, and it seeks to make things right.) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people want their voice to be heard.

Our Koori club students explored the ideas and values that surrounded the Uluru Statement from the Heart. The students then demonstrated their understanding of this year's theme through art. Student artwork expressed their story of Voice, Treaty, Youth. These artworks were arranged around the key image for NAIDOC Day and were mounted and framed. This creative display of understanding from our young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students can be viewed in our front office. It is a great tribute to future generations, that their voice matters.

Our Students at the 2019 Celebration Sing Out Concert

On Sunday 27 October I had the pleasure of accompanying 18 very excited choir students from our school to the Sydney Town Hall where they performed at the 2019 Celebration Sing Out Concert.

It was fantastic to see our students perform with pride and enthusiasm together with students, teachers and other adults from across New South Wales after months of hard work.

On Saturday 26 October they spent 3 very hot hours rehearsing at Granville Public School for their concert. On Sunday 27 October they also rehearsed for their concert at The Sydney Town Hall, which took place later that evening. It was a long, tiring yet rewarding couple of days for everyone involved.

One of the many highlights of the concert was the John Farnham Medley which was delivered by over 700 primary, secondary and adult choristers, various community choirs and The Occasional Performing Sinfonia. This combined presentation also included the amazing sounds of 4 bagpipe players.

Congratulations to our conductors Mr Mal Hewitt and Mrs Gwen Blackwell for their tireless efforts throughout the year. They helped to produce another wonderful concert for our students.

Thank you Mrs Frith for coming to watch our students at the concert.

I would also like to extend a huge thank you to the parents of our students for their help and support leading up to and including the day rehearsal and evening performance. Without you this experience would not have been possible for our choir.

All proceeds from this concert, which currently stands at approximately $30 000, will be going to 'The Music Therapy Unit' at Westmead Children's Hospital. This will enable the music therapists to work with some very sick children suffering from different types of cancers; and contributes significantly to their recovery.

MUSIC....What a wonderful addition to the lives of our children!

Yours Chorally

NEWS FROM QUAMBONE PUBLIC SCHOOL

First and foremost I would like to thank the whole Faulconbridge PS community for their continued support. We were incredibly touched and our families were extremely grateful for the funds you raised last year. These were distributed equally to each family within our school and they would have gone such a long way, not only in terms of financial help, but also in terms of lifting spirits. Our families felt blessed knowing that a group of students and their community cared enough about people living through the drought to go to the effort of raising money. That our families were chosen as the lucky recipients was hard to believe but so appreciated. Total strangers who wanted to help total strangers.

It has been a very long time since we have seen any useful rain in Quambone. Unfortunately we have seen many, many dust storms- too many to count. They are never ending. Imagine every surface and every nook and cranny of your classroom or home coated in a layer of dust. All of your belongings, your bedding, your carpets, your walls and even the clothes in your cupboards, covered in dust. You wipe it down or vacuum it up and then the next day there is another dust storm. It can get you down at times.

Since our contact with FPS last year, some of our farming families have had to sell off their stock as feeding has become too expensive. Some of our families have not had a great deal of work which has dramatically affected their income. It isn't just the land owners who suffer in drought, it is also the farm hands, the shop assistants, people who may pick up the odd cleaning job- all of these jobs become more difficult to secure when drought takes hold. We are just one of many school communities who are now in the grip of the continuing drought.

Beyond the financial stress is the uncertainty of what lies ahead. It seems that every conversation ends with, 'Well, hopefully we'll get some rain soon.'

But, it certainly isn't all doom and gloom at Quambone Public School! Quambone PS is a fabulous school with a hard working greater school community and 13 awesome students. Our students LOVE a good laugh and they love to learn. Our community is currently working really hard to raise funds so that all of our students can attend the upcoming Canberra excursion. Locals who don't even have students attending the school have donated meat and other prizes for raffles, all with the aim of getting our students to Canberra, and I am happy to say that with the help of this great community, it looks like all of our students will be attending.

Kind regards,
Paula Buttenshaw - Principal Relieving (Quambone Public School)

Seminar: Parenting Children Who Struggle with Separation

Starting school for the first time or returning to school after a break can bring up some strong feelings in children and parents. It is not uncommon for children to experience big emotions and engage in behaviours that are very difficult cope with. It is important at this time to strike balance between providing them comfort whilst encouraging them to be brave and get to school each day. We have some strategies that may help!

Twilight Markets

The P&C would like to say thank you to everyone that supported our school again this year with our Annual Twilight Markets. It is always a great night with delicious food, fabulous stalls and a great community spirit.

We can't thank you all enough for your generosity and help. Whether it was from buying raffle tickets, to helping set up stalls, directing traffic, helping on our school stall, serving in our Café, manning the gates, picking up and returning light towers or just being there taking part, the night cannot be a success without you. In saying that there are a few people that we would like to single out with the amount of work that they did. A special thank you to Springwood Rotary and Mr O. Your help in directing traffic so there is no inconvenience or accidents is paramount. Also to Mrs Carter, Miss Waddell, Mrs Frith and Mrs Henderson. Your tireless efforts on the night on the school stall did not go unnoticed. You did an awesome job all night selling our baked goods and glow products. Mrs Harris and Lauren's help on the book stall. Wow, we received so many books of all kinds and you sorted them all in orderly fashion and I am pretty sure at least half were sold.

And last but not least a big thank you to our P&C volunteers who were there all night making sure that the night ran smoothly and then there until after midnight packing up, cleaning the grounds and counting money.

We are still waiting on some final payments, but we are pleased to announce that we have raised close to $8,000 – thank you from the bottom of our hearts!
